

A-ROSA Culinary Highlights

4 May to 11 May 2024 | A-ROSA LUNA

Imagining the South of France conjures up a vibrant tapestry of colours – from lavender and blue to the warm, earthy browns of medieval towns. Add to this the red, white or rosé hues of a glass of wine. A good 3,000 hours of sunshine a year make the wines of Provence and Burgundy a real delight. Among them are some of the finest in the country. Discover why with our guest sommeliers, complemented by culinary surprises.

YOUR INCLUSIONS:

- Two winemaker set menus prepared by our culinary ambassador Oliver Edelmann and the A-ROSA team, accompanied by regional winemakers, Cave de Tain and Château La Nerthe.
- A special Crémant set menu from Oliver Edelmann, paired with wines by master sommelier Hendrik Thoma or sommelière Verena Herzog (optional, surcharge applies).
- A Crémant tasting with master sommelier Hendrik Thoma.
- A cheese tasting paired with wines by our expert sommeliers.
- Barbecue & wine on the sun deck (subject to weather conditions).
- Master sommelier Hendrik Thoma and sommelière Verena Herzog will hand-pick wine pairings for you throughout the cruise.

ON BOARD:

Cave de Tain Vineyard

The Cave de Tain vineyard was founded in 1933 at the foot of the Hermitage hill. Its wines, which come from all parts of the northern Rhône Valley, have been honed by generations of winemakers inspired by this unique site.

La Nerthe Vineyard

The history of one of Châteauneuf-du-Pape's most famous estates dates back to the 12th century. All 13 authorised grape varieties are grown sustainably at La Nerthe. The estate is owned by the Richard family.

Master sommelier Hendrik Thoma

Hendrik's outstanding gift is also his mission: to reduce complex wine knowledge to its essentials and make it easily accessible to anyone with a passion for the subject.

Sommelière Verena Herzog

Wine academic Verena Herzog shares her enthusiasm for wine at workshops and events, captivating everyone with her lively and entertaining charisma.

Oliver Edelmann

When it comes to culinary expertise, Oliver Edelmann is a revered figure. Renowned for creating exceptional culinary delights, his skills in the kitchen are second to none. For two decades, his sense of flavour and A-ROSA's commitment to culinary excellence have been a perfect match.

